THE CREATURE

Our family is not the same since the horrible creature's arrival. The monster makes noises, keeps everyone awake. The cries! The awful smells! At night, I hear it from my parents' bedroom. Scary! They are afraid of it too. They send each other to calm it. It eats their energy. They look tired. I must do something! I must face the creature, now! I come closer. The monster's large, blue eyes look at me! I don't know why. I put my head to its soft, warm belly and blow. It giggles and I think I like her... my baby sister.
